

CLASSROOM RULES

-WEB DEVELOPMENT SCHOLARSHIPS-

Congratulations on your selection into this highly competitive Web Development Bootcamp designed to be practical and useful in supporting your career development goals and boosting your employability opportunities through acquiring this valuable new skill.

At eMobilis we believe in creating a conducive environment for learning whether in our computer's labs in Nairobi, Kenya or through a Virtual Learning Class.

In order to support the learning process, we ask that you adhere to the following classroom rules and in general support your peers and fellow learners: -

1. Be Punctual: Show up 15 minutes before class time.
 2. Missing 3 consecutive classes will lead to automatic disqualification.
 3. Login in the online classes with your names as per the registration form
 4. Find a quiet place free of distractions. (Siblings, television, parents, pets etc.).
 5. Be respectful at all times during the virtual lessons i.e., only share your screen when allowed by the instructor. If your video is on, maintain appropriate behavior.
 6. Mute your audio, only unmute when being addressed or when you have a question.
 7. Stay focused and on task so as to avoid missing anything from the instructor.
 8. Video feed should stay on to promote focus.
 9. Refrain from eating or drinking when in session.
 10. Allow others to learn and work.
 11. Class assignment are mandatory, please ensure to submit on time as directed by the Lecturer.
 12. Daily attendance is mandatory unless for medical reasons which need to be advised 24hour in advance.
 13. Development of Web application will be required to confirm understanding and application of knowledge.
 14. Presentation after uploading your application is mandatory on the final day.
 15. All formal communications should be done through emobilisbootcamps@gmail.com
-